CERTIFIED FARMERS' MARKET (CFM) CERTIFICATE APPLICATION

A CFM is a location approved by the County Agricultural Commissioner where only agricultural products, which have been produced by a certified producer, may be sold or offered for sale. A CFM certificate is valid for up to twelve months from the date of issue but no longer than the indicated expiration date on the certificate.

QUALIFIED APPLICANTS must be one of the following:

- Certified Producer
- Nonprofit Organization
- Local Government Agency

ALL APPLICANTS SUBMIT:

- Completed Application form (attached)
- Application fee of $150. Method of payment:
 - Check or money order payable to: County of San Diego.
 - Cash, Visa or MasterCard (walk-in only)
- List of the names of certified producers selling at market
- Detailed map of market that clearly locates and identifies the contiguous boundaries of the certified area as well as the non-certified, and/or non-agricultural product areas of the market, and gives market location, including cross streets (see sample map)
- Load Sheet (form used to record daily sales by participants)
- (Renewals Only) A complete set of Load Sheets from a recent market day

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS (submit when applicable):

- CERTIFIED PRODUCERS: copy of valid Certified Producer Certificate.
- NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS: California Franchise Tax Board nonprofit status.
- Document authorizing market manager to act on applicant's behalf.

RENEWALS:

- To avoid market closure, submit application and fee 30 days prior to current CFM certificate expiration date. Extensions are not given.
- Certificate will only be renewed when all outstanding fees are paid in full.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENT: A CFM is defined as a food facility and a valid health permit is required from the County of San Diego Department of Environmental Health (DEH). Contact DEH at (858) 505-6900 or DEH.FHDUTYEH@sdcounty.ca.gov

RESOURCES: See page two.

CERTIFIED FARMERS' MARKET RESOURCES & INFORMATION

REGULATIONS (copies available by request):

Specific requirements for the operation of a certified farmers' market are found in:

- California Food and Agricultural Code, Division 17, Chapter 10.5.
- California Code of Regulations, Title 3 commencing with Section 1392.
- California Retail Food Code, Chapter 12.

All agricultural products, when sold or offered for sale at a certified farmers' market, shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

WEBSITES:

- http://www.cdffa.ca.gov/is/i_&c/cfm.html: California Department of Food and Agriculture - CFM Program information, links to Laws and Regulations, and market locator.
- http://www.sdcounty.ca.gov/awm/farmers_markets.html: Agriculture, Weights & Measures - CFM webpage has application packets, list of San Diego markets, and civil administrative penalty guidelines.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Scales used to sell any agricultural products by weight must be tested and sealed by a county sealer. A copy of current registration must accompany scale.
- Organic producers must be registered and certified (if sales are more than $5,000/year) as required by the Food & Agricultural Code.
- Packaged commodities must be labeled with identity, responsibility, and quantity in accordance with the California Code of Regulations.
- Fresh fruits, nuts, and vegetables sold outside of the Certified Farmers' Market designated area must conform to size, standard pack, container, and labeling requirements pursuant to the Food and Agricultural Code.
- See attached "Self-Inspection Checklist" as a helpful guide to complying with CFM regulations.
