- e) Unexcused Absence from more than one-third of the regular scheduled meetings in any 12-month period or three consecutive meetings. When a vacancy occurs as the result of missing more than one-third of regular scheduled meetings in one 12-month period or three consecutive regular meetings both the member and the appointing Supervisor authority shall be notified.

Vacancies shall be filled by the appointing Supervisor authority when a vacancy occurs.

Article 3 Duties and Responsibilities

The Commission shall have the power and duty to research and investigate, communicate, advocate, and advise in matters impacting arts and culture in support of the purpose set forth in Article 1, including but not limited to:

- a) Study and evaluate equity in access to arts and culture in the region.
- b) Promote equity in access to arts and culture in the region.
- c) Conduct workshops for County personnel and community groups to explore specific subject areas and improve relationships.
- d) Conduct public hearings dealing with matters before the Commission.
- e) Prepare and disseminate information on matters related to the arts community.
- f) Provide liaison and assistance to citizen groups interested in the problems facing the arts community.
- g) Apply for and administer grants from all levels of government and private sources for carrying out the functions and mission of the Commission. The Commission may delegate its authority to apply for and administer grants to Commission staff. However, the Commission retains the authority to advise staff on grant applications and administration.
- h) Recommend programs, funding, and services to support local artists, educators, cultural practitioners and organizations.
- i) Cooperate with community organizations to encourage programs for cultural enrichment and education in the county.
- j) Coordinate with County departments regarding funding and other resources for arts and culture.
- k) Advise on policy

Article 4 Officers

Section A - The election of officers is a responsibility of the Commission members and is governed in accordance with the establishing authority. If not addressed in the establishing authority, the following Sections B through F are in force.

Section B - The Commission annually elects from its members the following officers: Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson (Co-officers may be elected, if deemed necessary). A Secretary may be elected if none is otherwise available to the Commission.

Section C - If an office is vacated, the Chairperson will temporarily appoint a member of the Commission to fill the vacancy until a new officer is elected. Such election shall be held within 30 days of the vacancy.

Section D - The Chairperson provides general supervisory guidance to the Commission and presides over its meetings. The Chairperson assigns coordinating duties to the Vice Chairperson as necessary. The Chairperson is the sole official spokesperson for the Commission unless this responsibility is delegated in writing.

Section E - In the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice Chairperson assumes the duties and responsibilities of that office.

Article 5 Subcommittees

Section A - If formation of subcommittees is not addressed in the Commission establishing authority, then the following Sections B through E are in force.

Section B - The Commission may select from its membership, subcommittee chairpersons and/or members to direct studies, conduct research or make recommendations on committee activities.

Section C - The purpose and scope of each subcommittee shall be outlined in writing.

Section D - Each subcommittee chairperson shall be responsible for the keeping of records of all actions and reports of the subcommittee, and shall submit these actions and reports to the Commission on a regular basis. A subcommittee chairperson shall not act as spokesperson for the Commission unless authorized to do so in writing as set forth in Article 4, Section D, of these By-laws.

Section E - A coordinating committee comprised of the chairpersons of the subcommittees may be formed to assemble information from each subcommittee for presentation to the Commission. The Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson shall act as the chairperson of the coordinating committee.

Article 6 Organization Procedures

Section A - Robert's Rules of Order govern the operation of the Commission in all cases not covered by these by-laws. The Commission may formulate specific procedural rules of order to govern the conduct of its meetings.

Section B - Any group voting is on the basis of one vote per person and no proxy, telephone or absentee voting is permitted except as specifically authorized by the Ralph M. Brown Act (Gov. Code 54950 et seq.).

Section C - All meetings of the Commission and its subcommittee are open to the public to the extent required by the Ralph M. Brown Act. Meetings are to be held in accessible, public places. Notice of all Commission meetings shall be posted in a publicly accessible place for a period of 72 hours prior to the meeting (Special meetings require 24 hour notice). In addition, such notice will be mailed on request.

Section D - A majority of members currently appointed to the Commission shall constitute a quorum. A majority of members in attendance shall be required to carry any motion or proposal. No vote of the Commission shall be considered as reflecting an official position of the Commission unless passed by a majority of its quorum present at the specific meeting.

Section E - Code of Conduct. All members of the Commission are expected to abide the Code of Conduct for County of San Diego Boards, Commissions, Committees, Planning and Sponsor Groups, which can be found at Board and Commission Code of Conduct \(sandiegocounty.gov\).

Section F - Any commissioner may be publicly censured or removed from the Commission by a 2/3 vote for substantial neglect of duty, gross misconduct, engaging in disparaging and/or derogatory communication or direct action, inability to discharge the powers and duties of office, or violation of the Code of Conduct.

A 2/3 vote is defined as a vote by the commissioners present at a meeting when or where the vote takes place.

A public censure is defined as a formal statement of disapproval from the Chair and Vice Chairs of the Commission.
