a. Updated Proposed Revisions to CLERB's Rules and Regulations

ACTION:

ON MOTION of Member Hayes, seconded by Member Kenk, the CLERB approved proposing revising the Rules and Regulations to create the following time limits for receipts of specific complaints, as follows:

- Five years:
  - An incident involving the discharge of a firearm at a person by a peace officer or custodial officer.
  - An incident involving the use of force against a person by a peace officer or custodial officer that resulted in death or in great bodily injury.
  - An allegation of unreasonable or excessive force by a peace officer or custodial officer.
  - An allegation that a peace officer or custodial officer failed to intervene against another officer using unreasonable or excessive force.
  - An allegation that a peace officer or custodial officer engaged in sexual assault involving a member of the public.
    - As used in this subparagraph, "sexual assault" means the commission or attempted initiation of a sexual act with a member of the public by means of force, threat, coercion, extortion, offer of leniency or other official favor, or under the color of authority. For purposes of this definition, the propositioning for or commission of any sexual act while on duty is considered a sexual assault.
    - As used in this subparagraph, "member of the public" means any person not employed by the officer's employing agency and includes any participant in a cadet, explorer, or other youth program affiliated with the agency.
  - An allegation of great bodily injury arising out of or in connection with actions of a peace officer or custodial officer.
- Three years:
  - An allegation of dishonesty by a peace officer or custodial officer directly relating to the reporting, investigation, or prosecution of a crime, or directly relating to the reporting of, or investigation of misconduct by, another peace officer or custodial officer, including, but not limited to, any false statements, filing false reports, destruction, falsifying, or concealing of evidence, or perjury.
  - An allegation that a peace officer or custodial officer engaged in conduct including, but not limited to, verbal statements, writings, online posts, recordings, and gestures, involving prejudice or discrimination against a person on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation, or military and veteran status.

- An allegation that a peace officer or custodial officer made an unlawful arrest or conducted an unlawful search.
