Subject: Welcome to CLERB Team!!
Importance: High

Dear CLERB Staff and Board Members,

I am excited to introduce Bobby Ray Salas as CLERB's new Special Investigator. A native of Chula Vista, California, Bobby Ray brings over 15 years of dedicated service in public safety, with experience in both the public and private sectors. He most recently served as a Senior Police Officer with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, where he specialized in psychiatric emergency response, crisis intervention, and de-escalation techniques.

Bobby Ray holds several advanced certifications in tactical medicine and is a certified "Stop the Bleed" Instructor, preparing him to handle critical emergencies. His extensive experience includes participation in numerous criminal investigations, and he holds advanced certifications in both criminal and civil investigations, underscoring his commitment to justice and community safety.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Bobby Ray is deeply engaged in civic service. In 2024, he was appointed to a four-year term as a Commissioner on the City of Chula Vista's Board of Ethics, where he champions ethical governance. He has also contributed his expertise as a public safety consultant for three years on the San Diego Metropolitan Transit System's Passenger Safety and Security Advisory Committee.

Bobby Ray's first day will be Friday, October 18, 2024.

Please join me in warmly welcoming him to the team!

Thank you,

Nawras Hakak, MBA
