Please describe any special activities and/or achievements your program was involved in during the period of this report:

The Foster Youth Mentorship Program (FYMP) staff attend the San Diego Mentorship network and California Mentoring Partnership meetings on a monthly basis. In addition, the FYMP participated in four activities throughout the fiscal year. On September 25, 2022, FYMP staff participated in the San Diego County HHSVA Annual Resource Family Picnic. At this event, recruitment efforts were made and outreach for the program. On December 18, 2022, FYMP staff collaborated with San Diego Foster Angels to host a holiday event for foster youth mentees and their mentors. The event included roller skating, lunch, raffle prizes and individual gifts for each mentee. On March 21, 2023, FYMP staff hosted a training for mentors which included a review of policies, an introduction to the Extended Foster Care program and Independent Living Skills. Mentors were provided with light refreshments and a meal during this event. Lastly, on May 2, 2023, FYMP staff attended the Board of Supervisors Recognition Event to recognize our FYMP Volunteer of the Year for the 2022-23 fiscal year. This fiscal year, the FYMP was able to recognize a mentor that had gone above and beyond while working with a foster youth.
