NEED FOR FUTURE OF PUBLIC HEALTH FUNDING

- Funding has long challenged the U.S. public health system.
- This funding supports the ability of public health jurisdictions for:
  - Preventing diseases,
  - Improving living conditions, Extending life expectancy, and
  - Efforts to address critical social, economic, and environmental issues that contribute to health.

Ongoing Future of Public Health funding to be allocated to local health departments for:

- A diversified workforce
  - A ready and sustainable public health infrastructure
  - Expanded data access and interoperability
  - A holistic partnership network
  - A proactive, personalized, and highly coordinated communication strategy and operations, and
  - A comprehensive community health improvement strategy
