

Rohida Khan, Commissioner

Ms. Rohida Khan is a Victim Assistance Specialist at the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and covers County of San Diego and all airports including SD International Airport. Ms. Khan served as Human Relations Commissioner from 2014-2020 (estimated) for the city of Long Beach.

Ms. Khan assists HSI agents on scene when victims are likely to be encountered to provide mandated services, referrals, crisis mitigation, and information to crime victims, serve as a primary liaison with other field offices, DOJ components, and federal, state, local officials, and non-governmental agencies regarding victim assistance issues.

Ms. Khan works with the human trafficking Task Force in San Diego and is one of the founding members of Long Beach Human Trafficking Task Force and FGM (Female Genital Mutilation) Task Force of Greater Los Angeles.

Ms. Khan trained thousands of individuals both domestically and internationally on victim assistance, human trafficking, child sexual exploitation, trauma-informed and culturally appropriate services for the victims and other related subjects. Ms. Khan also co-authored a manual on Human Trafficking, which was used to train the Salvation Army employees both nationally and internationally.

Ms. Khan has Masters' Degrees (MAs) in International Relations, Psychology, and Political Science. She also has a Law Degree (LLB) and a Bachelor of Arts Degree (BA) and can speak 5 languages. Ms. Khan has received numerous awards for her work in anti-trafficking and victim assistance fields.

