MINUTE ORDER NO. 7

SUBJECT: TRANSFORMATIVE HOUSING SOLUTIONS THAT ADVANCE EQUITY, SUSTAINABILITY, AND AFFORDABILITY FOR ALL (DISTRICTS: ALL)

OVERVIEW

The San Diego region faces a severe housing crisis. Housing prices have far outpaced inflation and wage growth over the past decades, driving rents and home prices out of reach for many residents, forcing households to make serious trade-offs to live in the region, and contributing to a historic homelessness surge.

For decades, the housing policy discourse has failed to adequately address the scale of our housing shortfall. We are currently missing approximately 88,400 units across the region - or roughly 7% of the regional housing stock - and the vast most of the missing homes are needed for lower-income and middle-income households. We refer to this missing subset of the housing market as “equitable housing”, which includes people with a diversity of housing needs: very low-income households making less than $50,000 per year, older adults living on fixed incomes, college students, single-parents, teachers, nurses, childcare workers, and middle-income families making up to 120% of area median income, or approximately $130,000 per year. We need more housing across the income spectrum and the need is by far the greatest for equitable housing.

What is “Equitable Housing”?

Category	AMI Tier	AMI Range	Household Income
Equitable Housing	Very Low-Income	<50% AMI	< $54,550
	Low-Income	50-80% AMI	$54,551 - $87,300
	Moderate-Income	80-120% AMI	$87,301 - $130,950
Market-rate housing	Above Moderate-Income	Over 120% AMI	$130,951 >

The Region is Missing 88% of the Equitable Housing Units We Need

Source: Results from 5th Cycle RHNA (2010-2020), SANDAG

The current 6th Cycle Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA) anticipates the need for 21,500 new housing units per year, but we are currently building at less than half that rate. In fact, we haven't seen that scale of production since 1988.

The high cost of housing impacts all San Diegans: low-income residents, retirees living on a fixed income, younger generations locked out of homeownership, and struggling families trying to stay in the County. The housing crisis also drags down the regional economy as attracting and retaining businesses and employees has become increasingly challenging due to the unsustainably high cost of living. Since 2011, the County of San Diego has seen a net loss in migration, with an average of 23,000 more people moving out of San Diego than moving in each year, and those leaving the region are largely being priced out, with median incomes averaging $50,000 per year, four times lower than new residents moving into the region.

Alarmingly, housing affordability has only worsened during the COVID-19 pandemic as median asking rents increased 8.4% year over year to $2,075 a month, while median home prices surged 18.7% - among the highest increase in the nation - to a record high of $800,000.

The pandemic has also made it clear that safe, decent, affordable housing is an essential form of infrastructure that is necessary for families and communities to thrive. As we lay the groundwork for a just and equitable recovery, we must center housing as a key investment to securing long-term stability, environmental sustainability, and economic resiliency across the region.

Today's action aims to start a frank, honest, and data-driven conversation about the scale of our regional housing crisis. This letter diagnosis four housing challenges facing our region and offers pathways for transformative housing solutions, including seven specific research and policy initiatives for County staff to investigate. These solutions have the potential to accelerate housing production and preservation and to advance equity, sustainability, and affordability for all.

We urge our colleagues to join us in supporting this effort.

ACTION:

ON MOTION of Supervisor Lawson-Remer, seconded by Supervisor Vargas, the Board of Supervisors took the following actions:

1. Directed the Chief Administrative Officer to research and evaluate the options for increasing “equitable housing” (ie. very low-income, low-income, and moderate-income housing) as described in Section 5: Principles to Orient Equitable Housing Solutions, and Section 6: Developing Transformative Housing Solutions, starting on page 14 on this letter. The Chief Administrative Officer is authorized to procure experienced and qualified consultants to assist and support the investigation of these options as needed.

 - a. Direct the Chief Administrative Officer to determine if the Buena Creek Area meets the overall criteria, and if it does, conduct the analysis described. If it does not, report back to the Board.
3. Direct the Chief Administrative Officer to develop a stakeholder outreach plan to inform the research and evaluation process. Stakeholders may include housing builders, architects, land use attorneys, lenders, tenant rights advocates, tenant legal services providers, researchers, environmental stakeholders, community-based advocates, LEED experts, philanthropic organizations, labor, local elected officials, city representatives, impacted low-and-moderate income individuals, and, any group or organization that approaches the County of San Diego.
4. In accordance with Section 401, Article XXIII of the County Administrative Code, authorize the Director, Department of Purchasing and Contracting, to amend existing contracts or issue competitive solicitations for consultant services necessary to implement the recommendations in this Board Letter, and upon successful negotiations and determination of a fair and reasonable price, award contracts for an Initial Term of up to one year, with four option years, and up to an additional six months, if needed; subject to the availability of funding, and to amend the contracts to reflect changes in program, funding or service requirements, subject to the availability of funds.
5. Report back to the Board with a memo detailing progress updates including, but not limited to, the following: progress on any consultant engagement efforts, progress on community and stakeholder engagement processes as well as any summarized feedback, initial research findings, policy recommendations, and deliverable timelines for each item contained in Section 6: Developing Transformative Housing Solutions by December 15, 2021, and quarterly thereafter.
6. Transfer appropriations of $1,068,000 from Housing and Community Development Services, Services & Supplies to Planning and Development Services, Salaries & Benefits ($173,000) and Services & Supplies ($895,000) for Fiscal Year 2021-22 staffing costs and one-time study costs as outlined below based on unassigned General Fund fund balance, and approve the request to add 1.00 staff years in Planning and Development Services.
