

Class: Strategic Responses to Mental Health Crises
Instructional time: 4 hours

Respecting the value of all human life and dignity without prejudice is paramount for all who serve the public. Vesting officers with the authority to use reasonable force and to protect the public welfare requires monitoring, evaluation, and a careful balancing of all interests. This course increases practitioner confidence in assessing mental health crisis and employs strategic resolution techniques that are guided by procedural justice considerations.

*San Diego County hires an external instructor to teach this class therefore the material is not available for review as it is not property of the San Diego County Probation Department.
