

San Diego County Probation

Juvenile Institutions Core Training

Unit 1: Agency Specific Training

Module(s): ATD (Aerosol Transmissible Diseases)

Instructional Time: 2 hours

1. Welcome and Introductions
2. Objectives
 - a. Students will understand how facepieces work and what their limitations are.
 - b. Students will be able to explain how to properly wear and inspect a facepiece.
 - c. Students will understand the procedures to care for ill youth in an isolation area.
 - d. Students will be able to identify their Respiratory Protection Administrator who can answer specific questions about the facepieces.
 - e. Students will be able to identify the characteristics of ATDs and name specific ATDs.
 - f. Students will be able to recognize signs that a youth may be ill with an ATD and will be able to follow the procedures for isolation and requesting treatment.
 - g. Students will be able to list the four stages of surge care isolation inside the facility during a potential ATD epidemic.
 - h. Identify the work tasks during which officers are and are not required to wear a respirator.
3. The County of San Diego's ATD Program
4. OSHA's Risk Pyramid
5. What is an Aerosol Transmissible Disease?
6. How are ATD's Spread?
7. Facemasks vs. Respirators
8. The Importance of Handwashing
9. Medical Evaluation
10. Characteristics of a Filtering Facepiece
11. Limitations on Filtering Facepieces
12. Respirator Components
13. Tips for Assessing Suitability
14. Fitting and Fit Tests
15. Video: Center for Disease Control
16. Inspection of a Respirator
17. Donning a Respirator
18. Proper Maintenance and Storage
19. Probation and Care of ATD Cases
20. Review / Closing / Evaluations