My parents moved to east county in 1957 so they could raise my siblings and I min a safe, rural environment I have continued living in the unincorporated areas of Lakeside and El Cajon ever since. I strongly oppose any redistricting that would split up our close knit east county community. The unique characteristics that unite our community include those that support life in a rural community- lifestyle, our rodeos and other east county events, economy that includes shared funding for infrastructure, etc, etc. Those who live in east county chose this area of the county for these reasons, so it makes no sense to fragment east county and the ties that bind us together as a community. I appreciate your support.
