I am a long time resident of Valley Center having lived here since the early 80's. Escondido however is where my son attended school, where we do our shopping, dine at restaurants, attend events, get our medical needs met (my daughter was born at Palomar Hospital), and so on. While I live in the "country" here in Valley Center, I consider Escondido to be my "city". It is the urban area that is the closest to where those of us in Valley Center live, and what happens in Escondido greatly affects those of us here in Valley Center, and vice versa. Please keep Valley Center in the same district as Escondido. Thank you.
