I am Nathaniel Tate, and I live in La Mesa but grew up in Spring Valley. I am part of the Communities Together Coalition, registering my support for continuing to redefine IRC Draft Map 14. While none are perfect, variations of the draft map 14 best represent different communities by maintaining the proposed PANA district which keeps the core of the Black and Muslim community of interest together. A lot of the black community has been pushed out of the City of San Diego, to Spring Valley, La Mesa, Lemon Grove, and El Cajon. While Spring Valley is an unincorporated area, it has more in common with Lemon Grove, La Mesa, and San Diego City Council District 4 than it does with East County.
